

SCRIPTURE MEMORY

GREATEST OF FALL TIME.

SUMMER 2022

Hello campers!

We hope that you are having a great start to 2022. We are doing well and we are looking forward to seeing you this summer!

Here at Camp Northward, we LOVE the Bible. We like reading it, singing it, listening to it, memorizing it, and sharing it with others. That's because we know there is no better way to get to know God than to know what the Bible says.

Did you know that the Bible is God's letter to you? God knows everything about you, and He wants you to know Him, too. The Bible tells us all about who God is, what He thinks about us, and how we can have a relationship with Him forever.

We want to encourage you to learn and memorize the Bible. Psalm 119:11 says, "I have hidden your word in my heart that I might not sin against you." We don't expect you to memorize the whole thing. That would be HARD! But we do want you to memorize some of it, because the more of the Bible that we can hide in our hearts (or memorize), the better relationship with God we can have.

We think this is so important that we want to help you get started today. We hope you enjoy reading this packet and starting to memorize your favorite verses. Share them with your mom, your dad, your cousins, your friendly neighbor, your favorite superhero, your...well, you get the idea.

We can't wait to see you this summer!

..... Intermediate Verses

"An argument started among the disciples as to which of them would be the greatest.

Jesus, knowing their thoughts, took a little child and had him stand beside him. Then he said to them, "Whoever welcomes this little child in my name welcomes me; and whoever welcomes me welcomes the one who sent me. For it is the one who is least among you all who is the greatest."

Luke 9:46-48

..... Intermediate Verses Cont.

"For this reason the Father loves me, because I lay down my life that I may take it up again. No one takes it from me, but I lay it down of my own accord. I have authority to lay it down, and I have authority to take it up again. This charge I have received from my Father."

John 10:17-18

"A dispute also arose among them as to which of them was considered to be greatest. Jesus said to them, "The kings of the Gentiles lord it over them; and those who exercise authority over them call themselves Benefactors. But you are not to be like that. Instead, the greatest among you should be like the youngest, and the one who rules like the one who serves. For who is greater, the one who is at the table or the one who serves? Is it not the one who is at the table? But I am among you as one who serves. You are those who have stood by me in my trials. And I confer on you a kingdom, just as my Father conferred one on me, so that you may eat and drink at my table in my kingdom and sit on thrones, judging the twelve tribes of Israel."

Luke 22:24-30

THE TEMPTATION
OF JESUS:

HIS VICTORY
OVER SATAN

Then Jesus was led by the Spirit into the wilderness to be tempted by the devil. After fasting forty days and forty nights, he was hungry. The tempter came to him and said, "If you are the Son of God, tell these stones to become bread."

Jesus answered, "It is written: 'Man shall not live on bread alone, but on every word that comes from the mouth of God.'"

Then the devil took him to the holy city and had him stand on the highest point of the temple. "If you are the Son of God," he said, "throw yourself down. For it is written:

"He will command his angels concerning you,
and they will lift you up in their hands,
so that you will not strike your foot against a stone.'"

Jesus answered him, "It is also written: 'Do not put the Lord your God to the test.'"

Again, the devil took him to a very high mountain and showed him all the kingdoms of the world and their splendor. "All this I will give you," he said, "if you will bow down and worship me."

Jesus said to him, "Away from me, Satan! For it is written: 'Worship the Lord your God, and serve him only.'"

Then the devil left him, and angels came and attended him.

Matthew 4:1-11

JAMES & JOHN ARGUE:

WHO'S THE GREATEST?

Then James and John, the sons of Zebedee, came to him. "Teacher," they said, "we want you to do for us whatever we ask."

"What do you want me to do for you?" he asked.

They replied, "Let one of us sit at your right and the other at your left in your glory."

"You don't know what you are asking," Jesus said. "Can you drink the cup I drink or be baptized with the baptism I am baptized with?"

"We can," they answered.

Jesus said to them, "You will drink the cup I drink and be baptized with the baptism I am baptized with, but to sit at my right or left is not for me to grant. These places belong to those for whom they have been prepared."

When the ten heard about this, they became indignant with James and John. Jesus called them together and said, "You know that those who are regarded as rulers of the Gentiles lord it over them, and their high officials exercise authority over them. Not so with you. Instead, whoever wants to become great among you must be your servant, and whoever wants to be first must be slave of all. For even the Son of Man did not come to be served, but to serve, and to give his life as a ransom for many."
